ORI EDITION GOING TO WAR

Inspection continues; remember security

"As of 3 p.m. yesterday, word has it that the initial response to mobilization was good," said Lt. Col. Larry Turner, 507th TFG commander.

Colonel Turner also stressed that through the next few days, security awareness must be paramount.

"I'd like to remind everyone about the wear of the restricted area badge," he said. "If you see someone without a badge on in the restricted area, challenge them! The security of our site is very important."

Remember to wear the badge in the restricted area and remove it when leaving the area.

"If you don't remember this, you will have jeopardized unit awareness," said MSgt. Eddie Bork, group information security monitor.

"Security is everybody's business," added WSSF Commander Maj. Roger Barr. "We only have a limited number of security force people to respond. We need everyone's eyes to watch out for security."

Exercise

Tension continued to increase as the 507th TFG continues to deploy to its overseas training base.

A naval encounter took place between Turkish and Soviet naval forces about 200 nautical miles north of Izmir.

The Soviet ships were trying to get through the Dardanelles from the Black Sea.

The Dardanelles, which is controlled by Turkey, would give the Soviets access to the Mediterranean Sea with its southern forces.

Soviet units close to the Turkish border have been placed on alert.

Tensions are increasing in other parts of the world as well.

IG conference period set for Saturday

The 12th AF IG will have a General Conference Period Saturday from 2 to 3 p.m. in the 507th TFG Commander's conference room, building 1043, room 116.

The conference is for all military and civilians who wish to present a complaint or inquiry. Those wishing to use this opportunity to provide information concerning Air Force Fraud, Waste and Abuse Prevention Program can do so during this timeframe.

Matters discussed during the conference period will be held in confidence except to the extent necessary to obtain official consideration.

BUDDY CARE is very important, especially in hot weather while wearing chem suits. Weather forecasters are predicting temperatures to continue to be in the high 80s-low 90s for the next few days. DRINK PLENTY OF WATER and keep your eye on your buddy out there with you. Remember: safety comes first.
